- o I've owned and well maintained it since 1985 when it had only 26K miles on it!
- o Rear suspension similar to that on GM passenger busses, recently^new air bags
- o 7 Brand new windshields and paint, re-chromed bumpers after tree limbs hit it
- o Alcoa wheels / Bridgestone tires with Smartire monitors
- o 403 GMC truck & industrial engine with 3.42 Cinnabar final drive (vs. 3.05 OEM)
- o New Rochester/Edelbrook carburetor (with optimized jets)
- o Rebuilt transmission, with large cooler in front of replaced radiator
- o As a result of nearly crashing at 80 MPH, I installed a new Bendix hydro-boost and master cylinder, new front calipers with carbon metallic pads (the best kind), relined rear shoes, cup seals kits, (I had already installed 1-3/8" cylinders on middle wheels vs. the %" OEM cylinders) and new W cylinders on the rears.
- o Ceramic-coated headers with dual left side exit (forward of fuel tanks) 2-1/2^ exhausts with extensions to clear the tires. The OEM single 2-1/2" pipe ran aft beside both fuel tanks (added to the road -heat problem).
- o Recently replaced stainless steel mufflers with 0.040" stainless above (protects plywood floor)
- o ^54 Ford T-bird front seats/I 80 degree swivel (Powered driver's seat)
- o Digi-Panel Monitor, custom air/fael ratio and manifold pressure gauges, down-shift switch at finger tip
- o Overhead and dash A/Cs converted to R134a and new aluminum condenser
- o Insulated and 3/4" plywood protected ftiel tanks (ready for flying rocks on Alaska's gravel highways),
- o Center kitchen model, which is the cook's favorite floor plan:
- o Built-in NuTone drive with food processor and blender attachments
- o New Dometic Classic gas/AC walnut paneled refrigerator
- o 4-burner gas stove with oven and ,4 cubic ft. Panasonic microwave above it (on the wall)
- o Ceramic toilet and sink, 14 inch bathroom vent with 12VDC Nautilus fan, goes off when closed
- o New macerator pump and spare; improved sewage system
- o New upholstety and carpet and fluorescent lighting throughout
- o Solid walnut cabinets throughout unit with carpeting padding inside
- o Custom rear double bed with upholstery bedspread, headboard cabinet full of bed and bath linens
- o Custom couch with removable bolsters to convert to a single bed, and storage space below
- o Gas furnace with thermostats at bed and couch, 6-1/2 gal. automatic-lighting gas water heater
- o Just smoged and '09CA tags obtained. Priced at a fraction of comparable units on an RV LOT!!!!
- o VERY CLEAN — GREAT CONDITION — MUST SEE TO APPRECIATE!!!!
